Central High School is not allowing grass to grow under its feet, nor are the followers of the Dark Blue allowing any bets to be overlooked in preparation for the scholastic campaigns in the various branches of sport. The basketball team is sailing along under the capable direction of Mark De Grange, while the track team under Coach William Foley is making all sorts of preparations for the winter meets.

The candidates have been out for the past three or four weeks. Central lost several stars in the graduation of Bill Gates, Fred Speidel, "Lengthy" Wingate, Wirt, Fishback, Swaggart, and Norman Oyster, but will have many good athletes to replace these stars. Captain Milstead, rated as the best sprinter in the high schools, is back on the job. Johnson and Jones, two other dash men, are counted upon for the shorter dis-

Stein, McLean, Latta and Swain look promising for the hurdles. Two members of the championship relay tea, Milstead and Birthright are back for the quarter while Pennypacker is anothshowing in Baltimore last winter in the $80 is ready for the distances this year. Hill and Ambrose are other distancers. Soloman and H. Jones are being primed to take care of the high jump while Abberly and Latta will make a stand for the pole vault. A Jones is being developed for the shot. Central has the best all around team in the history of the school last season.

and can be expected to come through with another well balanced aggregation. The Central runners want to make headway this season in development as they expect greater things when they get in the new school. Three good games will be on tap for followers of schoolboy basketball temorrow in the real start of the indoor campaign. Several practice games have been played to date, but tomorrow the real action comes when Business and Gonzaga meet in the Gonzaga gym; Friends and the Army and Navy Preps battle at the Connecticut avenue institution, and Alexandria High School journeys up for a game with Western. Gonzaga was winner of the Preparatory Basketball League championship and is holder of the Georgetown cup. Business lost the Interscholastic League title by a narrow margin to Western, and was rated every bit as strong as the Georgetown boys last year. The Stenographers have Buck Wise, Ralpi. Wise, Bill Culligan, Carl Wassman and Carl Glessner, who is captain, to start the season with this year.

The Gonzaga lads are an unknown quantity, but can be depended upon to keep Business on the move all the while Last year Gonzaga, set a terrific pace stitution, and Alexandria High School keep Business on the move all the while, i.ast year Gonzaga, set a terrific pace in its games. Western was defeated in one contest, and Business tied in another so that the strength of the North Capitol street five is well known.

Friends has a number of veterans in tow. Cameron Brown, Louis Jacobson, Robert King and William Harrison are the veterans from last year. Coach Mike Clancey, of the A. N. P. team. Robert King and William Harrison are the veterans from last year. Coach Mike Clancey, of the A. N. P. team, will have a fast team before the season is well under way. The Preps are big rangy fellows who are lightning. Their passing is exceptionally good and they are only lacking in practice to make them one of the most formidable combinations on the floor this winter. Knudsen and Weller, two football players who stand over six feet, are trying out for center. Watters, another football star, is out for forward. Zerbe, the only veteran of last years quint, is in the left forward position at present. Gilmartin, a football man, is trying out for guard. Other members of the squad for guard. Other members of the squad are Pawling. Rohrschach. Liang, sweeney, Fogetti, Gibney and Miller.

Coach Bianton, of the Alexandria High School team, will bring his boys up to Western tomorrow for a tryout under the new rules. The Alexandria team played a fast game last year and were more familiar with intercollegiate rules than the Washington schoolboys. They have a game with the Epiphany team next week and want to see how the Washington lads work out under the rules as revised.

Several games played to date have revealed the fact that infractions are all too frequent, due to the small size of gymnasiums. It is practically impossible to prevent crowding and charging of players has been so frequent that personal fouls have been called galore.
